

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

ANTHONY DOWNING,

Petitioner,

v.

CASE NO. 05-CV-70398-DT
HONORABLE LAWRENCE P. ZATKOFF

RAYMOND BOOKER,

Respondent.

_____ /

ORDER

This matter is before the Court for a determination as to whether a certificate of appealability should issue in this matter. “In a habeas corpus proceeding in which the detention complained of arises from process issued by a state court, or in a 28 U.S.C. § 2255 proceeding, the applicant cannot take an appeal unless” a certificate of appealability is issued under 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c). FED. R. APP. P. 22(b)(1). A certificate of appealability may be issued “only if the applicant has made a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right.” 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2). In order to make such a substantial showing, a petitioner must show that “reasonable jurists would find the district court’s assessment of the constitutional claims debatable or wrong.” Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000). The Court must individually evaluate each issue raised by Petitioner, see Murphy v. Ohio, 263 F.3d 466, 467 (6th Cir. 2001), and shall specify the issue or issues upon which Petitioner has made a substantial showing of the denial of a constitutional right. See 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(3). If the Court declines to issue a certificate of appealability, it must state why it is declining to issue one. See FED. R. APP. P. 22(b)(1).

The Court has reviewed each issue presented, as well as the supporting materials. For the reasons stated in the Court's April 16, 2007, Opinion and Order Denying Habeas Corpus Petition, Petitioner's request for a certificate of appealability is DENIED on each issue presented because Petitioner cannot make a substantial showing of a denial of a constitutional right on any issue. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that no certificate of appealability shall issue in this matter.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
